

Southeast

Grass River Property Breaks Ground on Transit-Oriented Multifamily Development in Miami

POSTED ON NOVEMBER 5, 2014 BY JOHN NELSON IN FLORIDA, MULTIFAMILY, SOUTHEAST

Grove Station Tower will comprise one-, two- and three-bedroom apartments averaging 1,000 square feet upon completion in early 2016.

MIAMI — Grass River Property has commenced construction on Grove Station Tower, a transit-oriented apartment community located a half-block from the Coconut Grove Metrorail station in Miami. The 184-unit project will be located at 2700 SW 27th Ave. upon completion in early 2016. Grove Station Tower will comprise one-, two- and three-bedroom apartments averaging 1,000 square feet. The property will also feature 6,000 square feet of ground-floor retail space. The design team includes architect Behar Font & Partners and general contractor Ortega Juneau Construction Co.